

1798 A.D the “Time of the End” a pivotal moment in prophetic history.

Purpose: To show from the word of God the chain of truth involving what the bible identifies as the time of the end – To demonstrate from God’s word the perfect harmony between the prophetic books of Daniel and Revelation along with the book of Luke.

Scripture: Revelation 13:10,11 Revelation 9:15 Revelation 10:1-4 Revelation 11:14 Daniel 11:40-45

The Prophesied rise and fall of Kingdoms

Daniel 7:3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

Revelation 13:1 AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

Revelation 13:2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a Leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

Note: This beast is the statue depicting both the pagan and papal kingdoms, which was shown to the king in a dream and which was revealed to Daniel in the vision [chazon]. The kingdoms all arise out of the sea, taking us down to the fourth kingdom as it transitions into the little horn [papal Rome].

When does it arise out of the sea?

Daniel 7:8 I considered the horns and, behold, there came up among them another little horn before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man and a mouth speaking great things.

Daniel 7:20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

Note: See Daniel 7:3 and 7:20 for “came up”. Also, before means to emanate from or arise, and in the case of this little horn power, it arises from the uprooting and fall of three of the ten horns, which took 30 years to accomplish from 508 A.D – 538 A.D. See Daniel 12:11.

Daniel 7:24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

Subdue – to subjugate by military force

Where do we see this subjugation by ARMS or military force on behalf of the little horn?

Daniel 11:31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

Daniel 8:11 Yea he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

Daniel 8:12 And an host was given against the daily by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practiced, and prospered.

Note: We must remember that Daniel 11:31 is the interpretation and or explanation of Daniel 8. See Daniel 10:14. Also, the word "HOST" mentioned in Daniel 8:12 is significant as it means ARMY as well. So, the, "They" being mentioned above in verse 31 is referring to the papacy and the army working his behalf. This sheds light on the true meaning of polluting the sanctuary of strength, taking away the daily and placing the abomination that maketh desolate, thus letting us know that it is not in reference to God's sanctuary, but a fortified place of idolatry. These outlined events would take the span of 30 years, from 508 A.D – 538 A.D to accomplish as clearly prophesied in God's word.

Pollute H2490 khaw-lal' – to dissolve, spoil

Spoil – To take by force, to plunder, To impair or destroy the quality or value of; ruin:

Sanctuary H4720 miqdāsh - a consecrated thing or place, especially a palace, (whether of Jehovah or idols)

Strength H4581 maw-oze' – a fortified place or fortress

Host H6635 - a mass of persons organized for war.

Note: So, we can clearly see what is being brought out, which aligns perfectly with history, and that is, an army stood on behalf of the Catholic church resulting in the daily being taken away. It was "BY REASON OF TRANSGRESSION" or "THE TRANSGRESSION OF DESOLATION" that the daily was taken away. Now, Daniel 7:25 and Daniel 8:13 makes perfect sense. The former identifies the transgression of desolation so we need not guess, while the latter further elaborates on its actions against the prince of princes and uprooting of the three pagan horns.

Daniel 7:25 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of times.

Note: The most High mentioned above is undoubtedly God, and it is by the little horn thinking to change God's times and laws that identify him as the transgression of desolation or man of sin.

1 John 3:4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law, for sin is the transgression of the law.

2 Thessalonians 2:3 Let no man deceive you by an means: for that day shall not come, unless there be a falling away first and that man of sin be reaveled, the son of perdition.

Daniel 7:8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

Note: The word law in Daniel 7:25 in which the man of sin thinks to change, is used directly in Deuteronomy 33:2 in relation to God's fiery law written by his own finger. And the only commandment found within the ten that corresponds with TIME is the fourth commandment. It is a set time. When this law was given, it was accompanied with "TEN THOUSANDS OF SAINTS" and this same scene is depicted in Daniel 7:10 where we see the MOED [Times] and DATH [law] being magnified, restored in the light of Judgment or the day of atonement.

Deuteronomy 33:2 And he said, The LORD came from Sinai, and rose up for Seir unto them; he shine forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them.

Daniel 7:10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

Law H1822 dath –

James 2:12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

The Step-by-Step Transition (508–538 CE)

During this 30-year climax, the remaining "horns" of Arian resistance were progressively systematically dismantled:

Note: In 507 A.D we have the famous battle of Vouille carried out by Clovis the Frank on behalf of Papal Rome, which resulted in the Erasure of Roman Law in Gaul. Prior to the battle, the Visigoths ruled over millions of Gallo-Roman citizens using the Breviary of Alaric (Lex Romana Visigothorum), a legal code based strictly on old Roman law. When the Franks won the battle and conquered Aquitaine, they replaced this system with Salic Law (traditional Frankish tribal law). This severely diminished the direct everyday use of Roman legal structures in western France.

508–511 CE: Clovis solidifies his reign as a Roman Consul, establishing Catholicism as the state religion of the Franks.

508 CE: This was the year the Lombards fought the main Herulian Kingdom on the Danube. They killed the Herulian king, scattered their entire population, and permanently erased their independent state from the map. While individual Herulian people survived, integrated into the Roman army, and later converted to Catholicism, 508 CE marks the exact year their kingdom, independence, and homeland were permanently destroyed by the Lombards. They never ruled territory or held an independent state again.

533 CE: Emperor Justinian issues his famous legal decree, officially recognizing the Bishop of Rome as the "Head of all the holy churches." However, this decree is just a piece of paper because the Arian Ostrogoths still rule Italy and trap the Pope.

534 CE: Justinian's armies crush the Vandals in North Africa (the 2nd prophetic horn falls), removing the southern threat to the Church.

538 CE: The Byzantine General Belisarius enters Rome, breaks the long, grueling siege of the Ostrogoths (the 3rd prophetic horn falls), and forces them to retreat.

Note: Many fail to see that the bible in relation to this prophecy is providing us a span of years from 508 A.D – 538 A.D in which we see the taking away of the daily and setting up of the abomination of desolation. The scriptures are not teaching some instantaneous event in which occurred over night. By understanding this simple detail being brought out in the two prophetic time periods provided, consisting of 1290 and 1260 years, we can now see clearly God's guidance in prophetic history with no contradictions.

Daniel 12:11 And from the time that the daily shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

It is here in which we are able to identify the commencement of the duration of time that takes us to the "TIME OF THE END". This is mentioned numerous of times in the word, showing its importance and significance in bridging various events in prophetic history, which are revealed in God's word when studied together.

Daniel 7:25 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

Revelation 12:6

Revelation 12:14

Revelation 13:5

This duration of time consisting of 1260 years brings us to the period where the Dominion of the Papacy is taken away in 1798 A.D and the sword wielder dies by the same.

Revelation 13:10

Daniel 11:40

While the "TIMES OF THE GENTILES" have reached their fulfillment at the end of the seven times bringing us to 1798 A.D, we now see special attention being brought to the little book which was sealed until the "TIME OF THE END" now opened in the hand of the mighty angel. The earth which helped the woman that is depicted as the lamb like beast arising out of it, is where the focus of the prophecy shifts, directing our attention to the church coming out of the wilderness.

Note: It is special notice that we understand the time period of 46 years being brought out in Daniel 12:11,12. This period from 1798 A.D which is the end of the 1290 years, and spring 1844 which is the end of the 1335 days bringing us to the blessing to those that wait during the tarrying of the vision, covers the time frame in which Revelation 10:1-6 is bringing out under the mighty angel and seven thunders. This increase in knowledge pertaining to the prophetic book of Daniel and Revelation at the time of the end was prophesied, and is the special attack and last warfare conducted by satan against the true remnant [Church of Philadelphia] as specified in Revelation 12:17 and Revelation 3:6-9.
